Connecting Heaven and Earth:
CREATING A DEEPER DIALOGUE BETWEEN
PSYCHOTHERAPY & SPIRITUAL PRACTICE

A Day with Roberta Goldfarb, PhD
Sunday 25 October
10am - 5pm

Roberta Goldfarb, PhD studied psychotherapy with Carl Rogers, Rollo May and Jim Bugental, and was a founder of Pacific Zen Institute. She was clinical and training director for Chrysalis Community Counseling Services for 13 years and is on the Clinical Committee of the Institute for Spirituality and Psychology.

In her psychotherapy practice she explores the integration of spirit and psyche. Roberta is renowned for her warmth, insight & skill as a teacher.

Co-sponsored by

Pacific Zen Institute, The Spiritual Competency Resource Center, and Chrysalis Counseling Services.

This workshop is about how psychological and spiritual work can be allies in our liberation: Psychological work can open the doors of spirit and spiritual practice can transform our psychological development. The personal realm finds its own value against the background of the spirit.

Why you should come:

Professionals: Discover how integrating spiritual and psychological approaches powerfully moves people toward healing. Learn about the creative leaps that can happen when spirit is present in the inner work.

All participants: Spend a day with a warm engaging experienced guide in both the psychological and spiritual realms. Learn ways to transform your relationship with yourself and with others by connecting a spiritual practice with the work of the soul.

Date: Sunday, October 25

Time: 10:00am - 5:00pm

Place: PZI's Santa Rosa Creek Zendo,
825 Sonoma Ave., Suite B,
Santa Rosa, CA

Cost: $65 PZI Members and Chrysalis Members
